From Your Rabbi...

I just experienced my favorite Shabbat at K.I. since my tenure here. I know that it was also the favorite of many others as well. We finally got to hear our new chazzan, Cantor Aron Hayoun, in action. It is an understatement to say that he did not disappoint. Many congregants echoed my own sentiments when I expressed that he transported me back to my childhood. His davening channels a deep Jewish spiritual chord that resonates through time. How blessed and fortunate we are to have Cantor Hayoun as our chazzan. Shabbat morning services this past week saw the highest attendance since I've been here, and as I joked on Shabbat, I doubt that it was to hear my sermon...or even for the cholent kiddush afterwards.

Just as we transition into a new era of professionalism and uplift in our services at K.I., so too, there is another more bittersweet transition afoot. Our president, Marty Gorin, is ending his tenure and handing the reins over to Joe Adamous. Marty was the face of K.I. for me when I first applied for the job here four years ago.

Perhaps the most important thing a rabbi needs to know before coming to a new community is if he can work well with the president. I liked Marty instantly, and knew that I would work well with him. We also would come to know and love Rosemary as well! And the same is true for Joe and Debbie Adamous. They were also two of the main faces of K.I. for us early on, opening their homes and their hearts for us and for our family, which helped a great deal to make us feel welcome right away.

I'm so excited to start working more closely with Joe now, to help move the shul ever forward. I feel that we are on a great trajectory. Our tradition compares the role of rabbi to that of Kohen Gadol, High Priest; the role of Chazzan to that of the Levite, who would sing songs of praise to G-d in the Temple; and the role of shul president to the melech, the political king of Israel. (These abstract, aspirational, and lofty comparisons no doubt provide many a rabbi, cantor, and shul president with comforting delusions of grandeur!)

We've had a great "melech" in Marty to this point, and we are getting a great one in Joe from hereon; we have a premier Levite in Cantor Hayoun; and as for my part, I humbly try to be the best "kohen" that I can manage. All of the pieces are in place! These are exciting times at K.I. I invite us all to join me in thanking Marty for his years of service to K.I., which will still continue; in welcoming Joe as our new president and praying confidently for his success; and finally, I invite us all to come to shul sometime soon to meet and hear our new chazzan. Ashreinu - we are blessed and fortunate.

Rabbi Moshe Grussgott

From Your President...

This month marks the arrival of spring. While this season brings warmer weather and more hours of daylight, blooms and beautiful flowers in our environment, recent world events have unfortunately cast a shadow over the future.

We have put behind us two very tough years of a pandemic, with its lockdowns and subsequent lack of or minimal socializing. Now it is time to get back to somewhat normal life so that we can once again gather together in person and socialize, have fun and practice our faith and traditions, some of which will involve K.I.

The change in season has also brought change in leadership at K.I. Many of you by now are aware that the torch of leadership has been passed to me. I am humbled and feel privileged for the honor. I want to thank K.I. members for having trust and confidence in me to provide this opportunity to serve the congregation. It is essential for any organization to have members willing to take brave steps to accept higher responsibilities and duties as a service to our community.

As the late Rabbi Johnathan Sacks, Chief Rabbi of the U.K. said, "...although leadership begins with taking responsibility, no one can lead alone. An organization's success depends on the extent of involvement of its members." Please consider, when called upon, to accept or just volunteer to take part in programs at K.I.

I give a big "yasher koach" to Marty Gorin, now our past president, for his service to K.I. I am looking forward to getting advice from Marty, as well as other past presidents as situations arise, that could benefit from their experience.

I am also very fortunate to have a group of magnificent individuals on the executive board who bring their expertise with them to serve K.I. members. And with the arrival of Cantor Hayoun and family, I am looking forward to many meaningful and beautiful Shabbat and Yom Tov services. Please make time to join us for Shabbat services and enjoy the warmth and beauty of davening (praying) together.

My wife, Debbie, and daughter, Rochelle, join me in hoping that you had a pleasant Passover.

Joe Adamous

Memorial Day services will be held in the chapel at Blue Ridge Cemetery, 1901 Blue Ridge Boulevard, on Sunday, May 29, at 11:00 am.

K.I. FRED DEVINKI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL

The students in the K.I. Fred Devinki Religious School have had a busy semester. We have had special Sundays that the entire school has learned together. Students discussed ways to help the earth for Tu B'Shevat and made bookmarks to help them remember one or two special ways to do this. For Purim, they made a surprise mishlach manot bowl for their parents with their picture on the inside that said "Happy Purim." Included in the mishlach manot were foods that required at least two different brachot, just like they had learned were necessary for that mitzvah. For Pesach, they got to sing with Cantor Hayoun for the first time! Then, they made pillow cases so they could be extra relaxed during the Pesach seder.

In addition to all these special Sundays, the students are always busy learning with their teachers every Sunday. They do morning tefillot, learn parsha, learn about upcoming holidays, learn mitzvot, learn about Torah and much more.

Under the direction of Morah Bridey, the 2nd and 3rd graders created a movie all about the Torah. They discussed what the Torah is, how it's made, how it's decorated and how we honor the Torah. They would love to talk to you about it, if you ask them.

Please visit the entrance to our school wing where you can see some new bulletin board displays. The students in the Tuesday's Hebrew class are learning the names of body parts in Hebrew and have made creations to show off their new knowledge.

We only have two sessions left, May 1 and May 15. For our final session on May 15, we will have a field day in honor of the upcoming holiday of Lag B'Omer, which is on May 19. In addition to playing field games, they will learn about the plague that stopped on this day and that Lag B'Omer is about loving and respecting fellow Jews.

If you are interested in enrolling your child in the K.I. Fred Devinki Religious School for the upcoming school year, please contact the school office or Rachel Macek (macek.rachel@gmail.com) for information or an enrollment form.
