IYAR - Sivan 5783

From Your Rabbi...

I always enjoy teaching the Women's Class at shul. Rabbi Mandl and I have been co-teaching it for the past few years, on an alternating basis. The format of the class is informal Q and A, and so it keeps me on my toes! I always wonder if there will be enough to discuss, and without fail, there indeed always is. Sometimes the questions are plain and pragmatic, such as how to prepare for Pesach.

While teaching the class a few weeks ago, as Pesach was approaching, I was expecting to field questions like that. But out of the blue, someone asked me: when will the Mashiach come? That's quite a question! I went through the painful history of false Messiahs, such as the infamous Shabtai Tzvi in the 17th century, and opined about how dangerous it can be to try and predict when the Messiah will arrive. The traditional stance is that we will wait for G-d to bring it about in its proper time. However, there is one tradition, based in the Talmud, that the Mashiach has to arrive by the year 6000. This is based on the notion that a millennium is like one day to G-d. The first six millennia of history are like the 6 regular days of the week, and the 7th millennium will be the Messianic Age, the Sabbath of history.

We are currently holding in the year 5783. That's pretty close to the year 6000! Only 217 years away, to be exact. That means that a baby born today who lives to be 105 could live to see the birth of a descendant who, in turn, lives to be 112 and is guaranteed to witness the messianic age! Of course, we always pray for the Mashiach to come before this "deadline". But all of this speculation goes to show that it's our task to just humbly do our best here on earth and let G-d sort out the details.

In May, we have Shavuot coming up, at the end of the month. I'm pleased to announce that we are reviving a late night Shavuot program at K.I. on Thursday night, May 25th. While we won't go all night, we will have Mincha/Maariv services at 8:20 pm, followed by dinner at 9:15 pm; Bill Greenberg will speak at 10:00 pm about his experience being stationed in the Sinai Desert with the US Army. It should be a wonderful program! I hope to see you there.

Wishing us a happy Shavuot in advance.

Rabbi Moshe Grussgott

Memorial Day services will be held in the chapel at Blue Ridge Cemetery, 1901 Blue Ridge Boulevard, on Sunday, May 28, at 11:00 am.

From Your President...

Now that we are officially in the spring season, our first chag of the season was Pesach, Passover, which is a celebration of freedom and liberty. This freedom is multifaceted; it is both physical and spiritual. We remember where our ancestors came from and what they went through, which should make us appreciate where we are and where we should be going!

This Passover season the expression מה נשתנה (mah nishtana) had multiple implications for me, besides the traditional interpretations. This Passover I had a huge vacuum in my life and a hole in my heart due to the absence of my dear wife, Debbie, of blessed memory.

Although I was happy to be with my family in Los Angeles, this Passover, I was saddened that I was not with my K.I. community to celebrate the seders and be together on the Chag. I missed you all, especially those of you that I see on a daily and weekly basis.

I was happy that I was in town to participate in the wonderful NCAA watch event sponsored by the Men's Club and KI Next. The food was scrumptious. Thank you to our downtown minyán connection, David Mandelbaum, and of course our own Pete Cabell, and Simon Kass and others.

Although the food was very good, what was even better and more unusual was the huge screen that was recently obtained to watch the game on. This was made possible through the generosity of Phyllis Kogan who directed the funds from the Jack and Sarah Ruben Family Fund. Jack, of blessed memory, had served as the president of K.I. in the 1940s for two terms, and Sarah, of blessed memory, had been the president of the Sisterhood. As we use and enjoy the new projector and a huge screen, we remember the Rubens and their services and generosity to our K.I. community.

Now we are able to have a "cinema in the shul," kind of like a theater in the park.

Changing the subject, I would like to remind the congregation of the fact that we have started having the musical Friday night services, compliments of our hard-working Cantor Hayoun.

We also have started offering coffee and croissants after Shacharit services on Sunday mornings. Please come and join us on Sunday mornings and stay over afterwards for a "petite dejeuner," as Cantor Hayoun would call it!

I also would like to inform you we are getting closer to replacing our dated and dilapidated sound system, as our beautiful building deserves a more modern sound system. We are in the last stages of our due diligence period. In order to accomplish this task, to update our beautiful building, we are going to seek much needed funds. I hope we can all pitch in and make contributions so we can afford to bring the synagogue up-to-date.

Finally please plan to be with us on Shavuot on the evening of May 25, as we are revitalizing our tradition of studying on that night to enhance our Judaic knowledge.

Please enjoy the spring and the nature with all the blooms and flowers that go with it.

Thank you,
Joseph Adamous

UPCOMING FAMILY PROGRAMMING - MARK YOUR CALENDARS!

From now until the end of the year we are very excited to share events with our families of all ages.

Our big kick-off event will be celebrating Lag B'Omer on Tuesday, May 9 starting at 5:30 pm for schmooze, dinner at 6:00 pm and bonfire at 7:00 pm.

Through the summer we know that everyone has busy schedules with camps and vacations but would love to still have get togethers with our K.I. friends.

On July 2, we are going to get group tickets to see Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat at the White Theater at The J.

We will end our summer with our 2nd annual fishing derby on Sunday, August 6. Anyone can come and enjoy getting out in the sun together whether you fish or not.

For Sukkot, get ready for dinner and board games in the sukkah on Wednesday, October 4.

COMMUNITY CORNER...

Jewish Family Services cares about your family's digital health. JFS is hosting a Screen Sanity Summit and you're invited. At the summit take part in face-to-face conversation, connect with others to educate, empower, and evaluate your family's technology use. Or attend virtually.

Regardless, you'll leave the summit with a strategy for a stress-free summer!

The 4-part series will take place from 7-8:30 p.m. on Tuesdays at the Jewish Community Campus. The series schedule and topics include:

- May 16: Past, Present, & Where to Start?
- May 23: Device-Free Zones & Accountability
- May 30: Ride, Practice, Drive & Valuing
- June 6: Create a plan & Rebuild Connections

To participate in the Summit, please register at: <https://bit.ly/JFSScreenSanitySummit>

For more information about the summit, please contact Jodi Perelmuter, JFS Family Life Educator, at jperelmuter@jfskc.org.
