NOVEMBER 2023

CHESHVAN - KISLEV 5784

From Your Rabbi...

I am writing this days after news broke of the horrific terrorist massacre in Israel. As I write this, the brave soldiers of the IDF are defending our Jewish Homeland, and our prayers and support must be with them day and night. Like many of us, I am simply at a loss for words at the moment. When at a loss for words, our tradition teaches us to use the words of Psalms. As such, I encourage us to all to recite daily the words of Psalm 121 (which I've included below) with the safety of Israel and her people in mind. I am also comforted by the words of the Haggadah:

And it is this that has stood by our ancestors and for us: For not only one enemy has risen up against us to destroy us, but in every generation they rise up to destroy us. But the Holy One, Blessed be He, delivers us from their hands.

With God's helps, the State of Israel will prevail against this enemy as well. Am Yisrael Chai - the People of Israel lives.

Psalm 121

- 1 A song for ascents. I shall raise my eyes to the mountains, from where will my help come?
- 2 My help is from the Lord, the Maker of heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not allow your foot to falter; Your Guardian will not slumber.
- 4 Behold the Guardian of Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
- 5 The Lord is your Guardian; the Lord is your shadow; [He is] by your right hand.
- 6 By day, the sun will not smite you, nor will the moon at night.
- 7 The Lord will guard you from all evil; He will guard your soul.
- 8 The Lord will guard your going out and your coming in from now and to eternity.

From Your President...

The High Holidays have come and gone. The two days of Rosh Hashanah, especially the first day, were very pleasant, since I had the pleasure of seeing most of our members, even if from afar. Cantor Hayoun, and the choir get most of the credit. They practiced their singing for many hours and days in preparation. After having listened to our choir for many years, a service without them would be boring.

On a personal note, during the first day of Rosh Hashanah, while chanting the long phrase of "on Rosh Hashanah, it's written and on Yom Kippur, it's sealed... .." I became very emotional. I associated it with the fate of my beloved wife in the preceding year. I wondered since Hashem knows our faith why he doesn't give us some clue or tip as to what to expect in our destiny.

On a happier note, the festival of Sukkot has been wonderful. We have a spacious and beautiful sukkah. This year we were fortunate to have had three opportunities to have dinner in our shul sukkah: a Friday night dinner, a Men's Club dinner with music, and a pizza dinner for KI NEXT.

On the first day of Sukkot, we had the good fortune to hear Rabbi Ira Grussgott, (Rabbi Moshe Grussgott's father) conducting the Shacharit service, and delivering a unique sermon. It was nice to see Rav Ira Grussgott and his wife Miriam visiting K.I. and Kansas City.

I have always been curious about the symbolism of shaking the lulav and etrog. Depending on what source one asks, the explanation could be that by moving lulav and etrog in all directions, we want to touch the whole world or we are concerned about the whole world. Another source explains it that the six directions represents six emotions of kindness, discipline, harmony, perseverance, submission and connection.

I especially enjoyed the shaking of the lulav and etrog while in a procession on Hoshanah Rabbah day (see picture below.)

Lastly, I am anxiously awaiting this year's unique Grand Givers event with singers from Paris, France, accompanied by Cantor Hayoun. I hope to see a good showing of our congregation to make Cantor Hayoun, proud and also help our number one fundraising event.

Just before the Focal Point went to print, we were hit with a tragedy in Israel. We don't really know the total human casualties and material damages just yet. The condition in Israel is dire and we don't know how long the war is going to last and what the final casualty numbers will be. But we need to come together to help and support Israel. I encourage everyone to support the Israel emergency efforts by financial means through the agencies of your choice, one of which is Jewishagency.org, so the aid will reach the victims and their families, our brothers and sisters in Israel, quickly. They need our support today probably more than any time in the past.

Thank you,
Joseph Adamous

FRED DEVINKI RELIGIOUS SCHOOL NEWS

Dear Families, Students and K.I. Peeps;

The holidays are over and I am reliving all the wonderful times during Rosh Hashanah and then Yom Kippur. Even though we did not have class time, we had time to be together during all the holidays. Our children were so engaged in prayer and fun. We cut up a pomegranate hoping to find 613 seeds inside representing the number of mitzvot. The disappointment was palpable as we got to the last few seeds and we were barely in the 400's. All the children walked down the hill together to the creek and we threw our "sins" into the water. We talked about how we can improve ourselves in the year to come.

Afterwards, every child got a chance to blow the big twisted shofar. It was hard to even lift but everyone got chance. One of our "middles" did not want to blow the shofar when it was his turn to try. In fact, he did not even want to hear the noise when others were blowing. As we began walking back to shul, our K.I. kid came over and whispered, "Can I try?"

With everyone standing around, this amazing child took a deep breath and blew the biggest TIKEAH that I have ever heard. The entire group of K.I. friends stood there and heard and saw a miracle. I think even the leaves and the clouds stopped moving. Everyone who was there will never forget the Yom Kippur shofar blower that blew us away!

On Wednesday before Sukkot began, our students got together and filled the room with laughter, creativity and friendship. Bright, sparkling, ribbons and glitter turned the room in to a sukkah extravaganza. We glued, we cut, we ate, we had so much fun!

Holidays, fun, praying, joy, playing games, friendship, making memories. Most of us adults have memories from childhood and the Jewish holidays. I hope with all of my heart, that our K.I. kids (and their parents) will have beautiful memories of High Holidays 2023 to share with future generations of children of their own.

As I fast forward to write for the month of November, I think about the high hopes I had after the holidays to finally have school sessions on a regular basis. Everything seems to be heading in a positive direction as we recover from the high energy and intensity of the holidays.

Now, writing for this Focal Point is not so easy. The situation in Israel is difficult to explain to adults, much less children. As a school, we will incorporate prayers, Hebrew songs and learn as much as we can about our homeland. We will celebrate our love of the land and find strength and keep in our hearts those who are in Israel fighting for our right to be Jews. We will tell stories, eat Israeli foods, play Israeli games and even learn all the wonderful things that Israel has contributed to the world.

May the next school Focal Point be filled with smiling faces of children embracing their Jewish world.

Shelley Rissien,
School Director

FOUNDERS OF ISRAEL

David Ben-Gurion, Golda Meir, Menachem Begin, and Moshe Dayan

Faculty: Bill Greenberg

This course will focus on four founders of Israel and highlight their roles in creating the Jewish State. Each of these four individuals were crucial in the birth of Israel in 1948, through its survival in the 6-Day and Yom Kippur Wars, to the recognition of Israel as a legitimate state within the Middle East by the end of the century. Each week, we will go into depth on the leaders' background and the events that shaped their personalities. We will discuss the key decisions that each made, and the second and third order effects those decisions had on the Israeli people and Jews throughout the world. Lastly, we will discuss the linkages each leader had on the others, and how those linkages effected the State of Israel and the Jewish World. People are history, and understanding these four founders, we can better understand the Israel and Jewish World of today.

Dates: Tuesdays | November 7, 14, 21, and December 5

Time: 7:00-8:30 PM - Location: KI

Cost: $100 - Scholarships available, contact Megan Pener, meganp@thejkc.org.

These dramatic adventures and the lessons they teach reverberate across the millennia with familiar themes of wrongdoings and reunions. Through the Torah text and the commentaries of our sages, you will gain new insight and deepen your understanding of the trials and tribulations faced by the founders of the Jewish nation.

Dates: Thursdays | November 2, 9, 16, 30; December 21, 28; January 4, 18, 25; February 1

Time: 7:00-8:30 p.m. - Location: KI Synagogue
