ISRAEL UPDATE-- AUGUST 25, 2017
Israeli Aid Group Provides Emergency Relief to Texas
On Aug. 28, seven volunteers from IsraAID—an Israeli non-governmental aid organization—flew to Houston, Texas to join ongoing emergency relief efforts in the flood-ravaged city. The group will join three IsraAID volunteers already on the ground in Houston when Hurricane Harvey made landfall as a Category 4 storm. According to IsraAID co-director Navonel Glick, the Israeli 10-person relief delegation to Texas includes disaster management experts, mental health experts and engineers who will coordinate a two-stage response. The first stage includes emergency relief and trauma support, and the second involves debris removal. “The immediate response is a crucial part of preventing long-term devastation among the affected communities. Beyond the initial tragedy and destruction, long-term trauma can have a debilitating effect for a population. In addition to the immediate response IsraAID will also aim to build the resilience of the local community and if necessary provide capacity-building.” “The biggest challenge is always coordination in situations like these,” Glick said. Founded in 2001, IsraAID has provided humanitarian assistance to communities in 41 countries, including 11 U.S. states.

Rabbi Shron's Joke of the Week:
Moishe and Miriam Epstein, in their late 80s called a handyman to do some work around their condo. “Honey why don't you sit down by the table and we'll start supper,” said Miriam to Moishe, husband of 50 years. “Sure thing,” Moishe replied, settling himself down. “Now darling, would you like the soup first or the salad?” asked Miriam. “Umm I guess I'll take the soup,” Moishe responded. After a whole meal of one endearing term after another, the handyman who was watching in disbelief couldn't contain his curiosity any longer. He snuck into the kitchen and asked, “Excuse me Mrs. Epstein. Do you always talk to your husband like that?” “Son, I'll be honest with you,” Miriam replied. “It's been five years now, and I just can't remember his name but I am just too embarrassed to ask!”

The K.I. Kiddush Fund is in need of donations. Please consider contributing to this fund so we can continue to enjoy nice kiddushim together.

PRAYER FOR HEALING
Mi shebayrach avoteinu, M'kor hab'racha l'imotaynu,
May the source of strength, Who blessed the ones before us,
Help us find the courage to make our lives a blessing,
And let us say, Amen.
Mi shebayrach imotaynu, M'kor hab'racha l'avotaynu,
Bless those in need of healing with r'fuah sh'laymah,
The renewal of body, the renewal of spirit,
And let us say, Amen.
